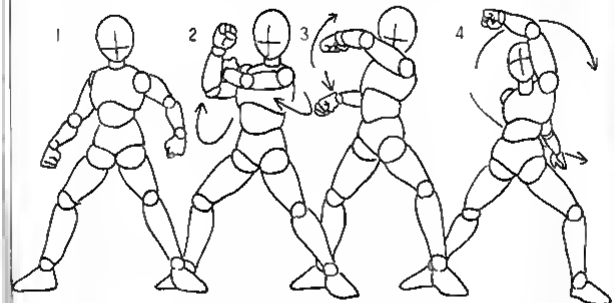
REMEMBER THESE ACTIONS, AND YOU TOO CAN BE WINGMAN!

★CHAING CHAPER

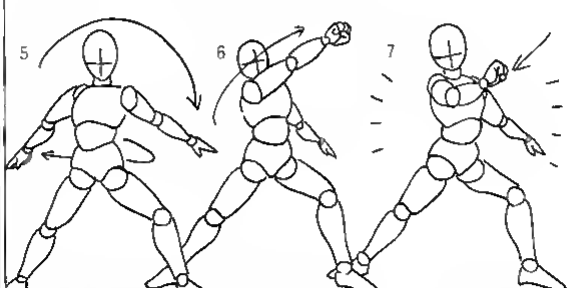
Kento's ability to transform uses this action, but he doesn't need it to become Wingman after all. Just take this form by simulating Kento, it's truly best that you should out "Chaing".



1 First, hold resolve like Kento, take this form and stand holding a 7-3 position.

2 Quickly, move the direction of your hand and resolvingly like the drawing, step with vitality. Here is the "Chaing!"

3 4 Greatly hold aloft your left hand and, in that time move your right hand behind you.



5 As your right hand goes into place like the drawing, your left hand moves in front without break. Your right hand going behind is for the reaction for holding it in front.

6 Stop on this position for one second. The actions of 3, 4 & 5 move quickly for one second.

7 Close your right hand and your set-up has ended!!
